

Submission Guidelines for Accepted Contributors to the DLA Conference

(Version December 1, 2015 for DLA 2016 – will also apply to following years)

Congratulations to the authors whose extended abstracts have been accepted by the review process for

Full paper (8 pages) or Short paper (4 pages)

for the double blind peer reviewed journal publication:

Digital Landscape Architecture

2016, Issue 1

Wichmann/VDE Publisher Berlin and Offenbach and Berlin

Please consider these next three steps:

1) Registration and your contribution for printing costs

If you have not already done so, we need to ask you to register for the DLA Conference at www.digital-la.de -> DLA 2016 (or dla201X). -> Registration as author.

Each author is asked to contribute 400 EUR towards the printing costs at Wichmann Publishers for a maximum of eight pages in the given format. This fee includes participation, beverages during the three day conference and two copies of the proceedings.

An additional two or four pages of this publication is possible for 100 Euro per double page.

2) Your format for submission

You need to use the given layout for the full paper. Please find the template as example file in word. The author guidelines and the sample word file are posted on the DLA home page www.digital-la.de
The direct link: <http://www.kolleg.loel.hs-anhalt.de/landschaftsinformatik/392.html>

Please use this word format as template for your layout of the text. The guidelines for the publication informs you about the details of fonts etc., which the publisher is asking for.

All graphics require the minimum resolution of 600 dpi for publication.

The English language text should be proof read by a native speaker.

You may submit the full layout paper as word document by January 15 to the conference system

3) The important dates for the review process of the full papers are:

Full manuscript draft due:	January 15
Receiving review of your full paper:	February 15
Reviewed manuscript due:	March 1

After successfully the review of the full paper is completed, you will receive the official letter of acceptance for publication as a reviewed paper.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have further questions.

Thank you for your contribution.

Best regards
